

Special requirements for participation in the workshop 3: “Writing for publication and publishing papers” (no special requirements for attending workshop 1 or 2)

Eligibility:

- Early career researchers (i.e. currently enrolled in PhD programmes, up to 5 years post-PhD or for those without a PhD no more than 8 years since starting employment as a researcher).
- Research must be situated within the prevention field (e.g. intervention research, epidemiological research, prevention policy & practice).
- Participants must be currently preparing a manuscript for an article or will be preparing manuscript in the next 12 months. Participants who have not yet started their manuscript are obliged to submit (as a minimum) an outline of the paper (1-2 A4 pages with headings and bullet points indicating the contents/argument, like an extended abstract).
- Participants must not have more than 2 first-author articles already published in peer-reviewed journals. Participants with no publications in peer-reviewed journals are explicitly encouraged to attend.
- Participants must be members of the EUSPR or become EUSPR members before the Workshop (SPAN bursaries to cover membership fee are available, see Cost below).

During this workshop, participants will be discussing each other's draft manuscripts and ideas.

Therefore, the following requirements apply for workshop 3:

- Stage 1 (registration): Submission of workshop registration form including abstract of no more than 200 words describing the proposed article. The abstract should be submitted with the bursary application (see last page of the bursary application form): http://euspr.org/wp-content/uploads/2015/04/SPAN\_Bursaries\_2015\_e.docx
Participants can register to attend the workshop here: <http://euspr.org/euspr-2015/>.
- Stage 2 (only selected applicants): A draft of the article (not necessarily the full article, but at least 1,500 words) or extended abstract (for participants who have not yet started their manuscript) must be submitted 3 weeks before the workshop (1st October 2015) by email to: mkosir@brookes.ac.uk, m.kosir@brookes.ac.uk, or matej@institut-utrip.si
- Participants will be allocated to groups of 3-4 individuals and be required to read each other's draft articles or extended abstracts (i.e. 2-3 draft articles or extended abstracts) prior to the workshop.
- We kindly ask that you only apply if you are prepared to meet these requirements.

Cost (apply to all three workshops):

- The cost of workshop 3 will be € 30 (this is a discounted fee for students and early career delegates only).
- Bursaries for workshop attendance including SPAN workshop and associated fees, travel and accommodation for the entire duration of the EUSPR conference will be available through the SPAN project.
- Workshop participants are encouraged to attend the EUSPR conference following the workshop. The EUSPR conference fee will have to be covered by participants.

The workshop will be limited to up to 15 participants (first come first serve as long as eligibility criteria have been met). More: <http://euspr.org/pre-conference-workshops-2015/>.
