

Writing for Publication and Publishing Papers

Dr Kimberley Hill

The University of Northampton, UK

Welcome

Introduction :-

- Briefly introduce yourself:
 - Name?
 - Where are you from?
 - Research interests?
- What are you hoping to get out of today?

Welcome

Facilitator:-

- Dr Kimberley Hill (ECF co-lead)

Senior Researchers:-

- Prof Michal Miovský (keynote, Q&A panellist)
- Prof David Foxcroft (Q&A panellist)
- Prof Rosaria Galanti (Q&A panellist)
- ECF: Pod-cast, recording and review...

Overview

Time	Duration	Activity	Who
9.00	20 min	Welcome and Introductions	Dr Kimberley Hill (KH)
9.20	30 min	Keynote speech: Publishing preventive science (ISAJE)	Prof Michal Miovsky (MM)
9.50	20 min	Brainstorming activity	Participants, MM, KH
10.10	20 min	Brainstorming activity: feedback to the plenary	Participants, MM, KH
10.30	30 min	Coffee Break
11.00	60 min	Panel discussion and Q&A	Prof David Foxcroft (DF), Prof Rosaria Galanti (RG), MM
12.00	60 min	Lunch
13.00	60 min	Group work: paper discussion and feedback	Participants, DF, RG, MM, KH
14.00	30 min	Coffee break
14.30	15 min	Group work continued	Participants, DF, RG, MM, KH
14.45	30 min	Feedback to the plenary & discussion	KH
15.15	15 min	Closing session	KH
15.30		Close	KH

About Me

- PhD: Psychology & Health, Associate Lecturer, Oxford Brookes University, UK (2011-2014)
 - Understanding Drinking Behaviour: Affordances and an Ecological Approach to Cognition.
- Lecturer: Psychology, The University of Northampton, UK (2014-ongoing)
 - Early Career: Teaching and research
 - Publishing papers from PhD (journals etc...)

Publishing Papers

- Crucial need for prevention research
- Tackling public health challenges
- Valuable: develop, test, implement
- Shared knowledge, strengthen research base, inspire others
- Applied: inform practice and policy
- Future research, funding, career goals

Workshop

- ECR with limited experience of publication in peer-reviewed journals
- Guidance and feedback in preparing papers
- Keynote, structured group feedback, panel discussion and brain storming
- Discussion and response to your own issues

Keynote

Prof Michal Miovský, MA, PhD

- Professor – Clinical Psychology, Charles University, Prague
- Interests: qualitative, addictions, prevention, clinical research
- Vice President: International Society of Addiction Journal Editors (ISAJE)
- Deputy Editor-in-Chief for the Journal of Adiktologie
- Member of editorial boards incl: Journal of Groups in Addiction and Recovery, Czech and Slovak Psychiatry
- Publishing preventive science: How to practically use education and training activities developed by ISAJE and improve publishing skills

Brainstorming

- In groups of 3-4:
 - What are the challenges that you face during the publication process?
 - Where do you get stuck or require help from others?
 - What other questions do you have about the publication process?
- Prepare answers - elected spokespersons from each group will give feedback

Coffee Break

10.40 – 11.00

Brainstorming

- Feedback to the plenary (spokesperson):
 - What are the challenges that you face during the publication process?
 - Where do you get stuck or require help from others?
 - What other questions do you have about the publication process?
- Discussion of challenges and questions will take place during the panel discussion

Panel Discussion

- Senior Researchers' experiences of publishing (5 mins):
 - Prof Michal Miovský
 - Prof David Foxcroft
 - Prof Rosaria Galanti
- Discussion and response to brainstorming challenges and questions
- Q&A with panel members

Lunch

12.00 - 13.00

Group Work

- Group 1:
Aniek Van Herwaarden
Kimberley Ozano
Laurie Kelly
Peter Bohan
- Group 2:
Sinziana-Ioana Oncioiu
Andréa Leite
Valeria Di Marco
Miriam Blikmans
- Group 3:
Ieva Radzevičiūtė
Lindsay Sullivan
Viviana Stampini
- Please sit in your groups of 3-4.
One senior researcher per group.

For Each Article:

- Authors (5-10 mins):-
 - What is your article about?
 - What were your experiences of writing the paper?
 - Any questions/ challenges that you have?
- Group discussion/ feedback (20 mins):-
 - What did you like about the paper? What are its main contributions to the area of research?
 - Does the content support what the paper set out to do? Would you recommend any improvements?
 - Any other questions or comments?

Coffee Break

14.00 – 14.15

For Each Article:

- Authors (5-10 mins):-
 - What is your article about?
 - What were your experiences of writing the paper?
 - Any questions/ challenges that you have?
- Group discussion/ feedback (20 mins):-
 - What did you like about the paper? What are its main contributions to the area of research?
 - Does the content support what the paper set out to do? Would you recommend any improvements?
 - Any other questions or comments?

Plenary

- Feedback to the plenary from each group:
 - How did you find the review process as an author and as a reviewer?
 - Were the discussions useful? Have your questions and/ or concerns been addressed?
 - Did authors share the same challenges/ have the same questions?
 - Do you have any remaining questions for our panel members?
- Summary of discussions
- Final points from panel members?

Closing Session

- Publishing is important
- Personal goals, careers, funding etc...
- Prevention research: problem-based, crucial need, value
- Challenging: writing, submission, revision, rejection, time...
- ECRs face similar issues: work with others – peer review, collaboration

Final Questions?

Closing Session

- Workshop and keynote slides – EUSPR website and ECF
- Review article – ECF
- Podcast – EUSPR website and ECF
- Feedback forms – please complete and return to me before leaving
- Contact:
Kimberley.hill@Northampton.ac.uk

Thank You

Thank you to our panel members and organisers:

Matej Kosir

Michal Miovský

David Foxcroft

Rosaria Galanti

Enjoy the rest of the conference!